Suppose you have just had them made. That makes no difference. Better have an other pair than to wear something that is not becoming. Notice how well some people look who wear glasses, while others look ridiculous. It is not their fault. The optician who made them is to blame.

OPIUM SEIZED BY OFFICIALS

Charley Johnson, a Negro, Is Held to Await Action of Grand Jury.

Charged with having eight cans of opium in his possession, Charley Johnson, a negro, was held to the federal grand jury this morning when given a hearing before United States commissioner George B. Oliver. Johnson, with Perry Robinson and Doc K. Miller, was arrested late Monday at the union station by deputy customs collector Harry B. Lane and customs inspector Reeder.

The opium, which the special deputy says was prepared for shipment, was also recovered. Robinson and Miller, also negroes, were ready for trial this morning and they will probably be given a hearing Thursday.

ACQUITTED ON CHARGE OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS. I. M. Goodman, charged with receiving stolen property, was acquitted by a jury in the county court Monday afternoon. The jury in Monday's trial was composed of Edwin Thomas, J. S. Morrison, H. Ketchum, J. Hernandez, John Heintze and L. McCoy.
